Review Tagging Work Update

We are pleased to announce the next lot of Cochrane Reviews have been tagged by our review tagging group. Led by Prof Alison Kitson, the group is responsible for identifying and tagging in Archie (Cochrane's Information Management System) the reviews that are relevant to nursing care. You can view them through the Cochrane Summaries site at <http://summaries.cochrane.org> If you look at 'Other browse options' and then 'Cochrane group topics' you will see the nursing care tagged reviews. They are also available on the CNCF website at <http://cncf.cochrane.org/about-us> (down the bottom of the page).
